

Inez Van Zwol

I recently graduated from Howest – Digital Arts & Entertainment, major Independent Game Production. During the past year I have discovered my interest in VR. The two projects that lead to this discovery were for school and revolved around two very different types of rehabilitation. They made me especially interested in VR in a medical context.

Besides VR, I am also interested in all of the aspects of game production. Learning something new motivates me, which is why I chose IGP as my major.
